
Points are paired rate differences; bars are existing 95% bootstrap intervals over matched prompt IDs. Red points are Holm-significant within the predeclared 33-test Qwen family. Negative values indicate fewer operational failures under steering.